Ponderings from Partington Parish

Greetings from St. Mary's Church here in Partington where it's hard to believe I've been in post as Priest-in-Charge for over 10 months now and high time, I thought, to let folk know how I'm getting along.

Time has simply flown by, perhaps because as soon as one Sunday service is done I'm already working on the next two. As James said when I first started out at Mottram "the trouble with Sundays is there's nearly one a week"! Being the sole minister here and leading and preaching every week I am certainly missing the team at Mottram, however I am hugely supported by the congregation in all sorts of ways.

Here, all of our church members come from the parish and are committed to our tight knit community which they know well; caring with a passion for social justice, a heart for the gospel and deeply rooted in prayer.

Partington and Carrington is a somewhat isolated community both demographically and geographically, and has in the past suffered, often unjustly, from a poor reputation. Many families and individuals are really struggling for a whole variety of reasons, yet the community and the church are slowly re-writing the story and I have witnessed open hearts, surprising honesty, sacrificial generosity and a hospitality that goes the extra mile.

I'm somewhat rattling around the 130 year old rambling vicarage that was built when Partington was a small village of a couple of hundred people, nestled along a few streets round a village green. The parish grew as a Manchester overspill estate between the 60s and 80s to 8,500 people today, and there are plans for building around 1000 new homes.

I have settled well into the parish and vicarage, helped by purchasing some furniture including a comfy sofa from the money gifted to me from Mottram Parish Church when I left in March. In my spare time I continue to hike in the surrounding countryside, travel in Eastern Europe and indoor skydive in nearby Trafford!

My focus thus far has included growing the ministry to families and children; including revitalising baptism ministry, all-age worship and leading a team of 10 volunteers who run "Open the Book" assemblies at a local primary school. It has also been a challenging year for our church's pastoral work and we have seen the use of the Foodbank increase significantly.

Overall my ministry has been one of reconciliation and bridge building, between the church and community and within families and damaged relationships. In so many ways God is showing me "I am the right person, in the right place, at the right time" and the parish and all its opportunities and challenges fit well with my passions and prayers, and I am of course building upon all I learned through my invaluable time as curate with you.

I continue to keep St. Michael's in my prayers and very much appreciate your prayers too.

*God bless,
Andrew*

The oldest Bible comes back to the UK

The world's oldest surviving complete Latin Bible returns to the UK this autumn. It left these shores for Rome 1302 years ago, when monks in the northeast of England sent it as a gift to Pope Gregory II.

The Codex Amiatinus was one of only three produced at the twin monasteries of Wearmouth and Jarrow. (One has since got lost, and the other survives in fragments.) It was kept safe for centuries at the Abbey of the Saviour in Monte Amiata, in Tuscany. Then in the 18th century it was sent to the Biblioteca Medicea Laurenziana, in Florence.

The Laurenziana has now agreed to send it back, to be exhibited alongside the Lindisfarne Gospels and the St Cuthbert Gospel, the earliest intact European book.

The Bible is 12 inches thick, and weighs 35kg. It contains both Old and New Testaments, and was written on 1030 leaves made from the skins of at least 515 sheep. It has been called one of the greatest treasures of Anglo-Saxon times.

'Anglo-Saxon Kingdoms'
is at the British Library in London, from 19th
October
2018 – 19th
February
2019.

Prayer of the Month for St. Patrick's Day, 17th March

The Breastplate of St Patrick

A prayer against the temptations of the world

I rise today with the power of God to guide me,

The might of God to uphold me,
The wisdom of God to teach me,
The eye of God to watch over me,
The ear of God to hear me,
The word of God to give me speech,
The hand of God to protect me,
The path of God to lie before me,
The shield of God to shelter me,
The host of God to defend me.

Against the snares of the devil and the temptations of the world,
Against every man who meditates injury to me,
Whether far or near.

Amen

CARTOON CORNER

“Laugh? I nearly did!”

Grave certainties

As a bagpiper, I play many gigs. Recently I was asked by a funeral director to play at a graveside service for a homeless man with no family or friends.

The service was to be at a cemetery some distance away. As I was not familiar with the area, I got lost, and finally arrived an hour late. The funeral director and hearse were long gone. There were only the diggers left and they were eating lunch. I went to the side of the grave and looked down. The lid was partially covered with soil. The diggers stared at me over their sandwiches, and I sensed their reproach that I had deserted this dead man in his final hour of need. I didn't know what else to do, so I started to play.

The diggers looked quite startled at this, and put down their lunches. But they stood quietly enough while I played out my heart and soul for this man with no family and friends. And as I played 'Amazing Grace,' the workers began to weep. They wept, I wept, we all wept together.

When I finished, I packed up my bagpipes and started for my car. Though my head hung low, my heart was full. As I opened the door to my car, I heard one of the workers say, 'I never seen nothin' like that before and I've been putting in septic tanks for twenty years.'

So, apparently I'm still lost....

Hymns we sing?

The Laodicean church is described in the Bible in the book of The Revelation as being lukewarm. If the Laodiceans were to have a hymnal, suitable for their conviction, here's a list of some of the hymns it may contain:

- Just as I Am, with Lots of Excuses
- Make Suggestions to Me, My God and King
- My Hope Is Built on Nothing Much
- Not My Life - Let Me Be
- O Come, All Ye Wishy Washy
- O Come Let Us Ignore Him.
- Oh, for a Couple of Tongues to Sing
- Part of the Way with Jesus
- Pillow of Ages, Fluffed for Me

At some point between verses 3 and 6, I'll signal for you to do an Emergency Stop...

THE WORD

The Legacy of Mothers in the Bible

based on a meditation by Norma Murrain of Silverfish Jewellery...

‘Who can find a virtuous woman, her worth is far above rubies.’ Prov.31:10

With Mothering Sunday fast approaching, we are reminded of the joy and responsibility of being mothers. The legacy that mothers leave is written on the hearts of their children, and so passed down the generations. There are many mothers mentioned in the Bible; here are just four.

Genesis tells us that Eve was created by God (Yahweh) by taking a rib from Adam. Eve was the Mother of all creation, the very first wife and mother mentioned in the Bible. She was inquisitive, with a hunger for knowledge, but tragically succumbed to the serpent’s temptation to eat the forbidden fruit, and to even share it with Adam. As the mother of Cain, who killed his brother Abel, Eve was the first woman to ever experience the loss of a child. The lesson from Eve is that ‘the wages of sin’ really is death’ and that disobeying God’s laws often leads to sorrow and loss.

Hannah was the mother of the great prophet Samuel (1 Samuel:1). Hannah had been infertile, so at the temple she prayed in desperation, that if God gave her a son, she would give him up to become a priest. Hannah was blessed with Samuel, and when he was around three years old, she gave him to Eli, to be raised as a priest and went on to have five more children. Hannah reminds us of the importance of persistence in prayer, and of how richly God can answer our prayers.

The book of Ruth tells of how a Moabite woman chose to turn to the God of the Israelites. Ruth told Naomi, her Israelite mother-in-law: “Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. ..” She went on to marry Boaz and her son Obed became the father of Jesse, who was the father of David... an ancestor of Jesus. Ruth reminds us that our backgrounds need not affect our own choices in life, and that fidelity and faithfulness will be blessed.

Mary was a virgin who conceived her Son by the Holy Spirit. The miraculous birth took place when she was betrothed to Joseph, and had accompanied him to Bethlehem, where Jesus was born. Mary’s life stands for purity, faithfulness and wisdom. She reminds us of the importance of obedience and willing surrender to God’s will, however inconvenient it may sometimes be for us. Mary had her priorities right: ‘I am the Lord’s servant’ (Luke 1:38) and ‘let it be to me according to your Word’ (Luke 1:34).

This month, let’s give thanks for all the good mothers everywhere, whose faith, love, kindness and prayers for their children are leaving behind a legacy of goodness and grace.
