Dear Parent/Carers

On Thursday 3rd March, we will be celebrating WORLD BOOK DAY at Mottram!

This year we would like to celebrate the importance of sharing and enjoying a Bedtime Story.

As part of our celebrations, we would like the children to come dressed in their PJs or loungewear and are encouraging children to bring in a book that they enjoy reading at bedtime to share with their friends and teachers.

On the day, we will be joined by Daniel Peak the author of 'Little Horrors'. We are delighted to be spending the day with him, as an ex-pupil of Mottram we hope that he inspires other budding 'Mottram Authors' of the future. Each class will be taking part in a workshop with Daniel, and we are looking forward to hearing all about his journey from Mottram Pupil to Author.

In addition to this, we are also asking you to donate one or two pre-loved children's books for our 'Book Swap' shop, which will take place that week also. Children will be given an opportunity to visit the book swap shop to choose a book to take and enjoy at home.

On our twitter page, look out for plenty of ideas about how you can celebrate World Book Day at home with your children. There will be a competition to look out for and along with their WBD voucher, we will be sending a list of new and exciting recommended reads for each year group (that they might like to spend their voucher on)!

Kind Regards

Mrs Levy
